

Sociologists for Women in Society

2020 Sociologists for Women in Society (SWS) Summer Meeting Pilot

Pre-Meeting workshop for High School Teachers: Invitation to Ethnic Studies High School Teachers Workshop

Topic: Teaching Intersectionality in San Francisco Unified School District (SFUD) High School Classrooms

"Teaching Intersectionality in the H.S. Classroom: Critical Race Feminist Strategies for Student and Teacher Critical Inquiry, Praxis & Empowerment"

Workshop Date: Thurs. 8/6/20 from 9am-1:30pm PDT/ 12pm-4:30 pm EST

Participation is limited to 20 H.S. Teachers.

Registration is free.

Please RSVP by Tues. June 30, 2020 by emailing SWS Vice President, Professor Nancy López at nlopez@unm.edu

$50 gift card per teacher participant-up to 20 participants. $100 gift card for serving as teacher co-facilitator (up to two H.S. teacher facilitators). In your email please indicate if you are requesting registration as a participant or if you would like to serve as co-facilitator.

Please visit the SWS Website for more information on the Summer Meeting: <https://socwomen.org/>